ABOUT THE CITY

The City of San Dimas is located midway (about 27 miles) between Los Angeles and San Bernardino, at the base of the San Gabriel Mountains. Superior access to freeways offers a centralized location from which to enjoy Southern California's many excellent cultural and recreational activities.

San Dimas was incorporated in 1960 with a Council-Manager form of government. Our 33,449 citizens receive a full range of services through the combined efforts of the City's five departments (City Manager's Office, Administrative Services, Parks & Recreation, Public Works and Community Development) and the contract services of Los Angeles County.
