City Representatives: City Council Liaison Ryan Vienna, City Manager Chris Constantin, Captain Walid Ashrafnia

| ORAL COMMUNICATIONS | COMMENTS/RECOMMENDATIONS |
|---------------------|--|
| | Cathi Began thanked the Los Angeles Sheriffs Department for their extra patrol in the Calle Cristina area. Sean Cazares thanked the City for considering support for AB23. He highlighted that there are 2,500 bills currently in the legislature with significant implications. In one bill that passed the Assembly public safety committee, the bill would ban police from using K9s to apprehend individuals during crowd control situations. |

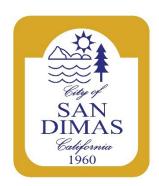

| Business Items | COMMENTS/RECOMMENDATIONS |
|---|---|
| 3.1 Approval of the January 17, 2023 Meeting Minutes | Motion by Kostolefsky/Seconded by Curtis to approve minutes of January 17, 2023. (Passed 8-0). |
| 3.2 2023 Year Crime Statistics and Trends (Captain Walid Ashrafnia) | Captain Ashrafnia updated the commission on the 2023 crime statistics and trends. Overall, crime was up by 2% from 2022. Specifically, the area of concern was petty thefts which were up. Assaults, robberies, and burglaries were down. |

| | There was a reported sexual assault at Horsethief Canyon trails. A be on the lookout was issued, and San Dimas station personnel were working to identify and apprehend the individual. Deputies performed a crosswalk operation |
|--|--|
| | downtown on Bonita. The purpose of the operation was to improve safety downtown for pedestrians. The operation resulted in the issuance of 20 citations in the first hour. |
| 3.3 Discussion of CERT Status and Training (Larry Giannone) | Larry Giannone, the City's volunteer coordinator, reported that the current cohort of CERT members were going to complete training in April. The final exercise would be April 20 th . He expects a new cohort to be prepared by the end of the year. |
| 3.4 Discussion regarding recommending to the City Council Support for Assembly Bill 23 by Assemblymember Muratshuchi: Theft: shoplifting: amount (City Manager Chris Constantin) | City Manager Constantin reported on the status of the bill and recommended the commission take a watch position. The commission concurred with this direction. |
| Reports | COMMENTS/RECOMMENDATIONS |
| Commissioner Reports | Commissioners provided updates. |
| City Council Liaison | City Council Liaison Ryan Vienna reported that theft in some cities is a public nuisance when the business does not desire prosecution but results in significant police response. This was intended to avoid the waste of public resources. |
| | The City Council was making changes to the board and commission handbook in the areas of membership, terms, and size of the commission. The City Council would evaluate input it received during a special meeting related to these areas. |
| City Staff Liaison | City Manager Chris Constantin discussed the essence of the proposed changes to the City's |

| advised the commission on the date of the next business watch meeting. |
|--|
| Constantin updated the commission on the storm damaged incurred during the recent rain and wind event. |

The meeting adjourned at 7:12 PM.
